

Customer Satisfaction is a first priority for Zuckerman Homes. "We know how important it is to accommodate a homeowner," says Steven Zuckerman. "Even if revised architectural planning requires individual permitting, we will do that, because we feel a completely satisfied customer must come first."

Zuckerman is a name that has come to mean reliability for generations of homebuyers, a point of pride for Andrew Zuckerman. "I have homebuyers walk into my office who bought from my father or grandfather in the fifties, sixties or seventies," he says. "Our previous home buyers refuse to trust anyone else when it comes time to build their ultimate dream home."

Testimonials from satisfied clients best describe the homebuilding experience and process you get from choosing and building with Zuckerman Homes.

"Our Zuckerman home is truly our 'Castle.' The Zuckerman family accommodated every request to make our home unique for us. We are now enjoying the lifestyle of luxury in our new home."

ZUCKERMAN HOMES
Building Dream Homes Since 1924

Welcome to Zuckerman Homes

Building Dream Homes Since 1924

Since 1924, four generations of the Zuckerman family have designed, crafted, and built dream homes, from starter townhomes to multimillion dollar luxury homes, for families from New York to Florida.

A family-owned and operated company, Zuckerman Homes continues its tradition of nearly a century of impeccable quality, integrity, and honesty into every home.

“At Zuckerman Homes, we know we are building more than a roof over your head. We are building a foundation for you and your family for years to come.”
— Andrew Zuckerman

In 1924, Meyer Zuckerman began building a family legacy of homebuilder excellence by building two-story, wood-frame homes in New York with all the attention-to-detail and personal service only an Old-World craftsman could deliver. The Zuckerman name quickly became synonymous with uncompromising quality. Meyer’s son, Mel, later joined him in the business.

In 1959, the Zuckerman family business moved to South Florida and firmly established itself in Florida’s promising housing market. In 1976, Meyer Zuckerman’s grandsons, Andrew, David and Steven joined the family business, which would become known as Zuckerman Homes.

As a premier homebuilder and real estate developer, Zuckerman Homes delivers only the best in homebuilding to Florida residents and their families.

“Everything we do bears the Zuckerman name, so it has to be done the right way,” confirms Ryan Zuckerman, representing the fourth generation to run the business with his father and two uncles. “We are very hands-on.”

Andrew Zuckerman affirms the family’s commitment to delivering homes of the highest quality with the focus on individual satisfaction: “There is no middle management at Zuckerman Homes.” This hands-on approach ensures quality and attention are maintained from beginning to end.

Personalized service and uncompromising attention to detail on every home are the foundation setting Zuckerman Homes apart from every other home builder.

This difference has resulted in Zuckerman Homes earning countless awards and certifications from business and real estate organizations. Industry media has also captured and shared the Zuckerman story. Rooted in humble beginnings, the Zuckerman story continues to unfold with every new home built. It is a tradition spanning four generations, over 50 communities, and thousands of homeowners.

Whether homebuyers are looking for their first home or a change in lifestyle or location, Zuckerman Homes welcomes interested homebuyers to visit and view any its communities and open houses.

Virtual visitors are also welcome to visit the company website, located at www.zuckermanhomes.com, to learn more, see more, and explore the possibilities in which one of Florida’s premier homebuilders can design and deliver your home your way.

Each beautifully crafted home bears the imprint of a business dedicated to building a legacy that will continue for generations to come. Each community is unique and strategically planned. Location is imperative. The best of shopping, restaurants, entertainment, and local services are always nearby. Even closer to home are the elements of neighborhood and nature – breathtaking views of sunrises and sunsets over the backdrop of nearby trails, lakes, and golf course vistas.
